Arthur J. Kenney

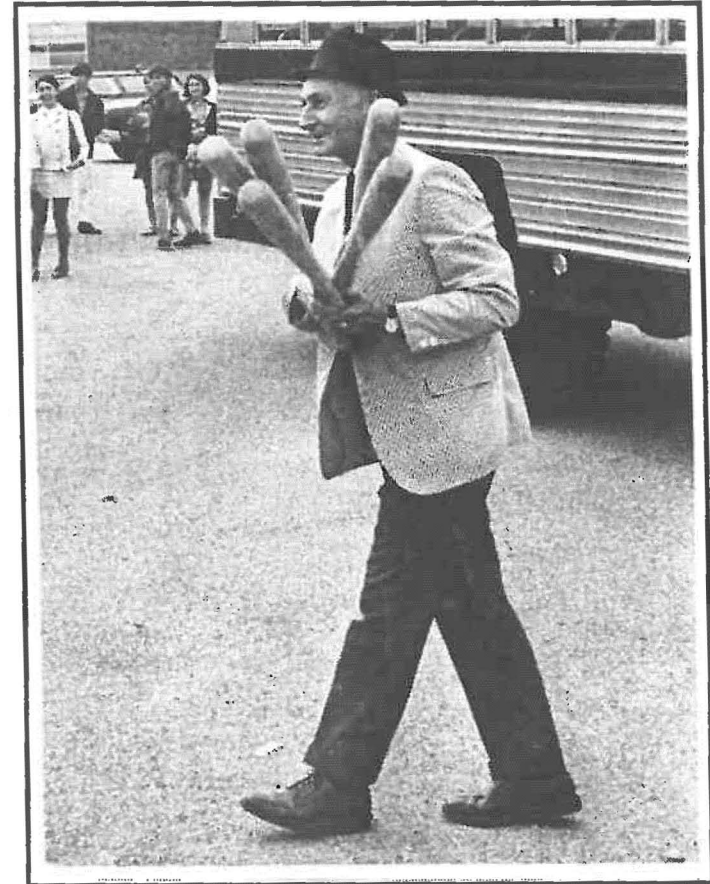

North Reading High School, Principal, 1964-1981

Art's athletic resume includes:

- 1932-1934 Milford High School, Milford, MA
Varsity Pitcher
1932 Captain of the Massachusetts All Scholastic Baseball Team.
- 1935-1938 Varsity Pitcher on the Holy Cross College Baseball Team
- 1938 Pitcher for the Boston Braves of the National Baseball League

Mr. Kenney is the staunchest fan of all North Reading sports teams, especially baseball. He faithfully attended all of the Hornets' home games and as many away games as he could. His support of all athletes was unwavering.

One of the most important decisions he made as principal was to hire a very young and as yet, untested Frank Carey as his varsity baseball coach in 1968. As you all know, this proved to be a very insightful one on Mr. Kenney's part as our baseball program has gone on to national prominence in the years since.

Lester E. Levey

North Reading High School, Athletic Director, 1963-1980

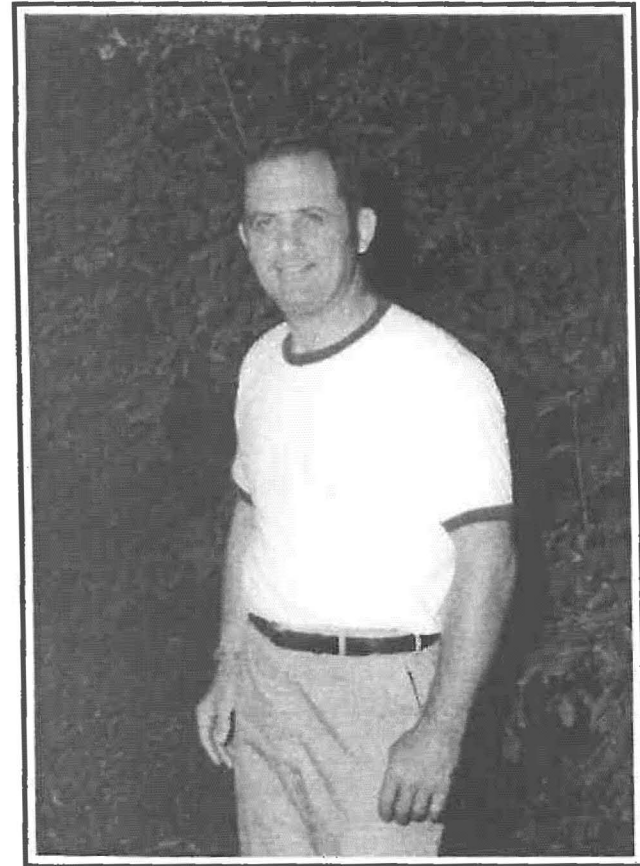

Les was born in Winthrop MA. He participated in baseball, basketball, and football. He was a graduate of the physical education program at Springfield College, served two years in the Army and received a masters degree in Physical Education from Boston University.

When North Reading High School opened it's doors in 1957, Les became Physical Education Director and served as Athletic Director for 17 years. He developed the athletic curriculum for all the town schools.

Throughout his 23 year career in North Reading, he coached the boys' gymnastic and baseball teams. He also coached the J.V. girls' softball team and coached the 1980 girls' varsity softball team, which advanced to the Division II State semi-finals. Besides coaching, Les was a basketball, gymnastics, and volleyball official. He owned a boys' and girls' day camp in Boxford, which kept his summers very busy.

Les was past president of the Massachusetts State Athletic Directors Association, (1974-1975), member of the Massachusetts Teachers Association, and the North Reading Education Association, and a member of the International Association of Basketball and Gymnastics Officials. He was a member of the North Reading All-Sports Boosters.

The North Reading community honored Les by naming the gymnasium after him, "The Lester E. Levey Gymnasium"

Nancy McLaughlin

North Reading High School, Coach, 1964-1978

Nancy's career at North Reading High School spanned 42 years as a teacher and as a coach for Field Hockey and Gymnastics.

Field Hockey Nancy coached the team from 1965 through the 1978 seasons. Her teams were Cape Ann League Champs in 1969, 1973, and 1974 and were consistently in the state tournament.

Gymnastics Nancy coached the gymnastics squad from 1975-1976. Her squads were Cape Ann League Champs in 1973 and 1974.

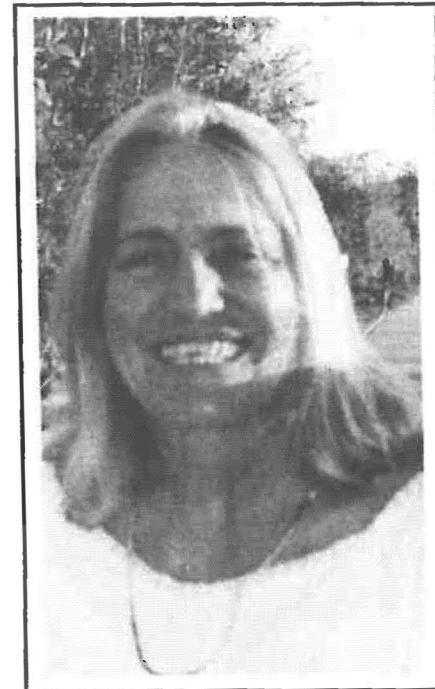

Nancy was also instrumental in starting the girls' tennis and softball programs.

One observer said, "if it were not for Nancy, these programs would have never got off the ground."

Coach McLaughlin was at the fore front of women's sports at the High School and College level long before "title 9" came into view. She always provided for the girls at North Reading High School at the expense of her time and her money. She was very dedicated to the success of girls' sports at North Reading.

Nancy was a field hockey referee and a gymnastics judge at the high school, college, and national level.

Nancy was a true mentor. Those who played for her and with her will never forget her.

Dean Salter

North Reading High School, Class of 1967

Dean starred in three sports during his years with the Hornets—football, basketball, and baseball.

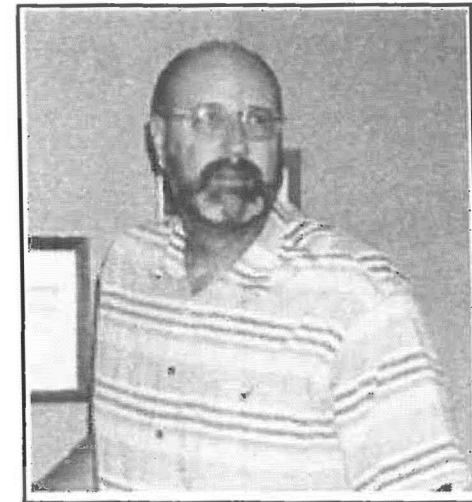

He was elected captain of the basketball and baseball teams by his teammates and coaches in his senior year.

He was a Cape Ann League All-Star in all three sports

Dean was the recipient of 12 varsity letters.

His fondest memory of his North Reading High School sports experience was while on the Gridiron, "kicking the field goal that helped NRHS beat Lynnfield for the first time."

College After leaving NRHS, Salter went on to play baseball at the University of Pennsylvania and in his senior year was awarded the "Walter O'Malley" trophy as the Most Valuable Player and was named to Eastern Intercollegiate Baseball Leagues All-Star Team.

In response to his selection to the Hornet Hall of Fame, Dean states, "it reminds me of the great coaches I was privileged to play for and the teammates, teachers, and community members who so strongly believed in sport as a mirror of life and gave the best of themselves and called out the best in others. I think the Hornet Hall of Fame is a great idea to help recognize the contribution of sport to the NRHS community (and beyond) over the years."
